Hi M,

Just wanted to touch base, things are going well, I had ~like~ every scan available this week (PET/CT, brain MRI) and the results were all negative for cancer! Huge relief. Still proceeding with chemo starting tomorrow, scans can't show individual cancer cells so it's necessary.

I'm working now for the next few hours and I should be able to work this Friday and next Monday 8/8, vacation next Tues-Fri. Hoping to wrap up the annual report, sorry it's taking so long.

Take care, and we'll talk soon,
Denise

Hi Margaret,

I am at work today, I may also be in Wednesday-Friday.

For today I am going to work on the following:

1. Updating MTurk records on dropbox (I wasn't able to merge pdf's from home).
2. Turning in receipts from Chicago
3. Researching TurkPrime and some other turk tools from the workshop, creating a summary list of our lab capabilities for researchers
4. Testing TurkGate with the mturk discount code to see if they work together
5. Hopefully meeting with Katherine Doxey about my upcoming time off

Later this week:

1. Clean out lockers, attach the new label holders that I got last fall
2. Work on annual report (I am thinking that we need to show data from year-year as a comparison, instead of just one year's worth of data)
3. Look for a good time tracking tool for RA's

Best,
Denise

1. Prepare the raw data package for Tammy/Amanda to review for USNews/Times Higher Ed
2. Work through the enrollment data inconsistencies with Paula at the Johnson Registrar
3. Update the survey portals if we get the data from Lisa Pastrick, Ben Davis
4. Keep working on the annual rankings/surveys schedules for each data provider
5. Email Times

Higher Ed to determine if they will use our 2012 alumni data and discard our 2013/2015 data because we didn't meet minimum participants

Hi Tammy,

I need to go to a Dr. Appointment in Ithaca from 10:40-11:40 today but I will make up the time.

In addition, I need to change my standard hours to MWF: 7:30am-4pm and T/TH: 8:30am-5pm in order to attend my chiropractor appointments in Ithaca without using HAP time.

Thanks!

Hi Tammy,

I can come in Friday, but not until 12:30-1pm, depending on how long radiation takes....they've been making me wait 20-40 each time which sucks.

Tableau: I really like this tool, I've watched a lot of the training videos and I'm ready to build something, it would be nice to have actual data that we will need for KPIs to practice on. But, I don't want to spend too much more time on this tool if we aren't going to use it. Maybe I can go out and get the published ranking data and start on that?

Tony Simons CV, I can finish entering this today.

Johnson presentations: this is going slowly, I am still in the B's and not finding much information on their CV's to fill in the blanks. I can work on this today if you want me to keep going.
